

You Need a Brain Laugh

Question: What's a brain laugh?

Answer: It's when you laugh about the differences between female and male brains.

So, what's so funny about the differences between female and male brains?

Watch and laugh your head off.

First is the scientific reasoning Dr. John Medina's Explanation from his book Brain Rules.

Second is the practical first hand experience of How Women and Men Shower Differently .

Third is someone who has finally captured the essence of female/male brain differences Gender Roles .
